Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

1. Claims 1-2 and 4-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Despres et al. (US 6,434,379) (hereinafter Despres).

Despres discloses (see columns 1-12 and figures 1-3, and in particular columns 5) a system and method for loading value over a telecommunication network onto a smart card, said smart card loading system comprising:

- a mobile telephone handset in communication with said telecommunication network, said handset including a subscriber identification module, a card reader for communicating with a smart card, which is separate from the subscriber identification module of the mobile telephone handset, arranged to be inserted in said handset, and an input interface for indicating a value to be loaded onto said smart card, said smart card being arranged to generate a request message to load said value onto said smart card (figs. 2-3; col. 1, line 25-col. 5, line 47, and in particular column 1 line 60 to col 2 line 5);
- a gateway computer (12) arranged to receive said request message from said handset over said telecommunications network and to retransmit said request message (col.1.2, line 60-col.1.4, line 25);
- a funds issuer computer arranged to receive said request message and to debit a consumer account associated with said smart card (col.3, line55-col.4, line 26); and

- an authentication computer arranged to receive said request message and to authenticate said smart card, whereby said smart card may be authorized to load said value (claim 16). While Despres uses different terminology to describe the functions performed by the system and the card itself, he does teach the same essential elements and features as contained in claims 1-2 and 4-15.

Response to Applicant's Arguments

3. In both the background of Despres and his invention, Despres teaches the same essential functions contained in this application. Applicant argues that Despres does not teach a smart card, but he does do so at the references given, on cols 1-2.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
